Unitus Community Credit Union Announces 2016 student Scholarship Recipients
$11,000 awarded to eleven students seeking higher education

Portland, Ore., August 1, 2016– Carrying on its commitment to helping members achieve a higher education, Unitus Community Credit Union, a Portland-based credit union, is pleased to announce that they awarded eleven scholarships to graduating high school, undergraduate and graduate students.

Each scholarship recipient will receive $1,000 toward his or her tuition for the 2016-2017 academic year. Awards were based on a combination of financial need, academic achievement, community involvement and essay.

The 2016 winners are:

- Joshua Snellgrove, from Clackamas, will be studying Computer Science at George Fox University (Newberg, OR). He aspires to become a game designer and software engineer.
- Tatum Garrison, from Newberg, will be studying Family and Child Development at Liberty University (Lynchburg, VA). She aspires to become an international adoption coordinator.
- Gregory Wilson II, from Portland, will be studying Environmental Science/Engineering at Western Oregon University (Monmouth, OR). He aspires to become an environmental engineer.
- Maya Aguilar, from Hillsboro, will be studying Journalism/Communications at University of Oregon (Eugene, OR). She aspires to become a mediator and help people resolve conflicts.
- Charlotte Newsom from Portland, is studying Film Production at Azusa Pacific University (Azusa, CA). Her goal is a career in film production & directing so she can get important issues across through storytelling.
- Kearsten Friedrich, from Newberg, is studying Animal Science and Biotechnology at Montana State University (Bozeman, MT). She aspires to be a veterinarian.
- Jennifer Brockman, from Denver, is studying BFA Musical Theater at The New School (New York, NY). She aspires to launch a career as a performer, director, writer, and producer of musical theater.

- Rosalyn Gasbarro, from Salem, is studying Music at Northwest University (Salem, OR). She aspires to be a music producer and artist.
- Kendra Pittman Quiroz, from Portland, is pursuing her Master of Social Work at Portland State University (Portland, OR). She aspires to become a social worker and dedicate her career to supporting and advocating for youth and families.
- Miriam Saucedo, from Portland, is pursuing her Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health and Counseling at George Fox University (Newberg, OR). She aspires to become a counselor so she can impact the lives of others in a positive and meaningful way.
- Yesenia Higuera, from Portland, is studying Nursing at Linfield College (McMinnville, OR). She aspires to be a registered maternity nurse.

Unitus' scholarship program has awarded more than $127,000 in scholarships to student members since 2004.

The online application for the 2017-2018 school year will be open mid-January.
